Related Material: Family Papers (Appendix I) in the Papers of Anna Eleanor Roosevelt; Roosevelt Family Papers collected by Franklin D. Roosevelt; Delano Family Papers; Hall Family Papers: Franklin D. Roosevelt: Papers pertaining to Family, Business and Personal Affairs; Franklin D. Roosevelt: Papers as Vice-Presidential Candidate, 1920; and Franklin D. Roosevelt: Papers as Governor of New York, 1929-1932.

NOTE:

The pencilled number designation on portions of this collection has no significance for the present arrangement of these papers. This numbering system relates to the order in which some correspondence chiefly among the principals, i.e. Franklin D. Roosevelt, Sara, his mother and Eleanor, his wife, was microfilmed.

Description of Series

- 1 6
- Old Family Papers (Roosevelt, Ludlow, and Hall). c. 1686-1912 and Undated. 6 containers.

Among the material in this series are some of the oldest indentures, deeds and estate papers of the Roosevelt family. Chiefly, these are the papers of Elbert Roosevelt, 1767-1817, a New York City merchant and ancestor of President Franklin D. Roosevelt. Also the miscellaneous legal papers of Franklin Roosevelt's parents, James and Sara Delano Roosevelt, 1864-1904 including their 1880 wedding certificate, a deed to land purchased at Campobello by Sara 1903, drawings for a burial plot in St. James Churchyard at Hyde Park, the will of Mary Roosevelt, James' mother and the probate record of James' own will and other estate papers. Some family correspondence between James Roosevelt and his wife and son, 1894-1900 is included here.

The papers of the Ludlow Family, 1811-1890 include those of Eleanor Roosevelt's great grandparents, Edward and Elizabeth Livingston Ludlow and her grandparents Valentine G. and Mary Hall 1853-1912; also some family and business correspondence, the latter relating to the maintenance of "Oak Terrace," the Hall family estate at Tivoli, New York.

The papers of Elliott Roosevelt, Sr., father of Eleanor Roosevelt consist chiefly of correspondence 1870-1894, (many letters have attached transcriptions) between Elliott, his parents Martha Bulloch and Theodore Roosevelt, Sr., his sisters Anna Cowles and Corinne Robinson, his brother Theodore, his wife Anna Hall and his daughter /Anna7 Eleanor.

The papers of Anna Hall Roosevelt 1875-1893 include her school memorabilia, prose and poetry fragments (holograph), clippings concerning the Hall-Roosevelt wedding, commemorative booklets in Anna Hall Roosevelt's memory written by friends, her obituaries bound and inscribed, "For Anna's Children, 1893" and a small amount of undated correspondence with her mother Mary L. Hall and her sisters-in-law Anna Cowles and Corinne Robinson.

Material in this series is arranged chronologically by family.

7 - 21 Correspondence. 1883-1945 and Undated. 15 Containers.

Chiefly, this series consists of personal family correspondence. Included are almost 3,000 letters exchanged among Franklin Roosevelt, his mother Sara and his wife Eleanor 1888-1945; letters of the Roosevelt children: Anna, James, Elliott, Franklin Jr., and John to their parents and grandmother; and correspondence written to the Roosevelts by their relatives. Among the correspondence from family members (Roosevelt, Delano and Hall) are letters from Catherine and Warren Delano II. grandparents of Franklin Roosevelt; Frederic A. Delano, his uncle; James Roosevelt Roosevelt, his half-brother; Susan Ludlow Parish, Eleanor Roosevelt's cousin; G. Hall Roosevelt, her brother; and President Theodore Roosevelt, her uncle. (Note: Only principal correspondents are listed on folder titles. This, however does not preclude correspondence from the principal's immediate family. Where such correspondence exists, it is filed together, e.g. in the file for "G. Hall Roosevelt," correspondence from his first wife, Margaret Cutter, his son Henry and his second wife Dorothy Kemp can also be found).

Among the General Correspondence material c.1905-1945 non-family letters concerned with business, social engagements and related matters are located; also included is correspondence from Franklin Roosevelt's New York Senatorial Constituency 1911-1913; get well messages following his polio attack, Container Series

7 - 21 1921; and letters of condolence on the death of (con't) "Rosy," his half-brother in 1927. Some correspondents in this series include; Nancy Cook, Isabella Greenway, Crown Princess Martha of Norway, Langdon P. Marvin, Endicott Beabody, Catherine Smith, Mlle. Marie Souvestre, Margaret "Daisy" Suckley, Edith B. Wilson and Walter Winchell.

Correspondence is arranged alphabetically by name of correspondent and thereunder chronologically.
