

JOHN TOLAND

Papers, 1962-1983

Accession Numbers: 80-45, 84-1, 85-11

The papers were loaned by Mr. John Toland. They contain material which is subject to copyright restrictions under Title 17 of the U.S. Code.

Quantity: 56 feet (approximately 112,000 pages).

Restrictions: Papers and other historical materials the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy or a libel of a living person are closed. ~~Certain interviews for Adolf Hitler and Infamy have been closed until the deaths of the interviewees. Researchers seeking access to those interviews should contact Mr. John Toland.~~

*opened per telephone instruction
from Mr. Toland
5-4-1999*

Mr. Toland considers the transcripts of taped interviews for his books to be part of the working notes he compiled while writing those books, and not the authoritative texts of the taped interviews. Consequently, he has stipulated that researchers use the taped interviews and make their own transcriptions. Mr. Toland's transcripts may be used in conjunction with the tape recorded interviews, but must not be quoted or cited as the authoritative texts of the taped interviews. Researchers may not quote from the transcripts of Mr. Toland's taped interviews for Adolf Hitler, No Man's Land and Infamy without his permission.

*permission granted per telephone instruction
from Mr.
Toland.
5-4-1999*

Related Material: Material related to the subjects of Mr. Toland's books will be found in President Roosevelt's papers as well as those of Adolf Berle, Harry Hopkins and Henry Morgenthau, Jr. Copies of the tape recorded interviews for Adolf Hitler are also in the Library of Congress.

John Toland, author and historian, was born in LaCross, Wisconsin on June 29, 1912. He graduated from Williams college in 1936 and attended Yale Drama School the following year. In addition to numerous short stories, he has written several books concerning the Second World War. His works include Ships in the Sky, 1957; Battle: The Story of the Bulge, 1959; But Not in Shame, 1961; The Dillinger Days, 1963; The Flying Tigers, 1963; The Last 100 Days, 1966; The Battle of the Bulge, 1966; The Rising Sun, 1970; Adolf Hitler, 1976; Hitler: The Pictorial Documentary of His Life, 1978; and No Man's Land, 1980. Several of his books have won awards from the Overseas Press Club. The Rising Sun was awarded the Pulitzer Prize for non-fiction in 1970.

Toland serves as a member of the National Archives Advisory Council; he also belongs to the Authors Guild and the Accademia del Mediterraneo.

Toland's papers, which relate to his books No Man's Land, The Rising Sun, and Adolf Hitler, include correspondence, research notes, transcripts and notes of interviews, memoirs, articles, newspaper clippings, copies of documents and book excerpts, translations of foreign language material and printed material. Mr. Toland has also given the Library photographs used in these books and tape recordings of interviews conducted in researching Adolf Hitler and No Man's Land.

The papers are arranged in ^{six} ~~five~~ series: (1) The Rising Sun, (2) Adolf Hitler, (3) No Man's Land, (4) General Correspondence, and (5) Infamy and (6) In Mortal Combat.

Series I: The Rising Sun

Correspondence (see also Series IV), notes of interviews, research notes, copies of documents, memoirs, clippings, articles, book excerpts, printed material, and translations, arranged alphabetically by correspondent, author or subject. Editorial files, along with drafts, galleys, and proofs, are filed at the end of the series. (See Appendix A for list of interviewees.)

Series II: Adolf Hitler

Correspondence (see also Series IV), notes and transcripts of interviews, research notes, copies of documents, memoirs, clippings, articles, book excerpts, printed material, and translations, arranged alphabetically by correspondent, author, or subject. Many of the interview tapes have not been completely transcribed; the transcripts sometimes also include comments by the typist. Editorial files, along with drafts, galleys, and proofs are filed at the end of the Series. The interview tapes are filed with the Audio Visual collections (see Appendix B for a list of these tapes).

Series III: No Man's Land

Correspondence (see also Series IV), notes of interviews, research notes, copies of documents, oral history, transcripts, memoirs, clippings, articles and book excerpts, printed material, and translations, arranged alphabetically by correspondent, author or subject. Editorial files, along with drafts, galleys and proofs, are filed at the end of the Series. The interview tapes are filed with the audiovisual collection.

Series IV: General Correspondence

Includes fan mail, correspondence from friends and colleagues, as well as family letters, arranged alphabetically by correspondent. Some overlap does exist between the correspondence in this Series and that filed in the first three Series. Addresses, notebooks, a card file of authors and periodicals concerning World War II are filed at the end of this Series.

Series V: Infamy: Pearl Harbor and Its Aftermath

Correspondence, arranged alphabetically, notes and transcripts of interviews, research notes, copies of documents clippings, articles, book excerpts, and printed material. Some of the interview tapes have not been completely transcribed. Editorial files, along with the drafts, galleys and proofs are filed at the end of the Series. The interview tapes are filed with the audiovisual collections (see Appendix C for a list of these tapes).

Series VI: In Mortal Combat

Correspondence, notes and transcripts of interviews, (arranged alphabetically), memoirs, research notes, articles, clippings, copies of documents, complete volumes and book excerpts. The interview tapes are filed with the audiovisual collection (see Appendix D for a list of these tapes). Photographs relating to this collection are also filed with the audiovisual collection.
